

WOMEN WHO LEAD: A PANEL DISCUSSION

SPONSORED BY  National Institutes of Health

Join the Office of Equity Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) and the National Heart Lung and Blood Institute (NHLBI) Panel Discussion inspired by the documentary Film "Picture a Scientist." The film showcases three women scientists and their journey deep into their own experiences of overcoming brutal harassment, institutional discrimination, and years of subtle slights to revolutionize science's culture. The discussion aims to generate dialogue on fostering a diverse, inclusive, and understanding environment throughout the NIH community.
