

U.S. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION
Washington, D.C. 20507

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES
POSTED BY ORDER OF THE
EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION
An Agency of the United States Government

This Notice is posted pursuant to an order by the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission dated 9/17/2019 which found that a violation of the Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII), as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., has occurred at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland (hereinafter this facility).

Federal law requires that there be no discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of the person's RACE, COLOR, RELIGION, SEX, NATIONAL ORIGIN, AGE, or DISABILITY with respect for hiring, firing, promotion, compensation, or other terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

This facility was the subject of a default judgement entered against the Agency by and Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Administrative Judge. As a result of the default judgement, the facility was ordered to expunge the discriminatory disciplinary actions from the employee's personnel file; pay backpay with interest and pay the employee compensatory damages and attorney's fees and costs. This facility will ensure that officials responsible for personnel decisions and terms and conditions of employment will abide by the requirements of all federal equal employment opportunity laws and will not retaliate against employees who file EEO complaints.

This facility will comply with federal law and will not in any manner restrain, interfere, coerce, or retaliate against any individual who exercises his or her right to oppose practices made unlawful by, or who participates in proceedings pursuant to, federal equal employment opportunity law.
